

My talk to the Chelmsford Amateur Radio Society was attended by a very large (and somewhat daunting) audience. I was asked by George G3RJV (founder of the GQRP club) to present the talk on QRP, since he had previously been invited but was unable to make it. Despite the very large shoes I was attempting to step into, the talk appeared to be well received and appreciated!

Chelmsford Amateur Radio Society website

CARS' writeup of my talk on their website

CARS' writeup of my talk in their newsletter \(50KB Adobe file\)

{gallery}talkchelmsford/lecturing{/gallery}

Here I am, getting ready for my talk. I plugged my laptop into a video projector and everything worked w

{gallery}talkchelmsford/hamfigalling{/gallery} I tried to do WAS club for PA. This was supposed to be a talk ab

At that time, my most recent complete project was associated with the project of a small USB-powered SDR 30m r

Written by Hans Summers

